PROFIL

Former professional in the finance and investment sector, I decided to switch to software development following my last position at the fintech Sowefund. Working with developers, I discovered the richness of the job (creativity, teamwork, problem solving...) and its strong impact on companies and society.

Currently studying at Ada Tech School to develop my technical skills, I am looking for a one-year apprenticeship in a TechForGood company starting from June 2021. I will also be able to put my soft skills as well as my understanding of end-user needs and business challenges to good use.
